Country living at its best, this is a great family property with tons of area in the yard for the kids to play while making forts in the abundance of trees. Walking into this 1158 sq ft home you are greeted with a large entrance then off to the left you are welcomed into an open kitchen and dining room combination. The kitchen has an abundance of cupboards and tons of counter space for meal prep and baking. Moving into the Living Room that could be used as a play room or office/computer area and then you will enter a very large Living Area with a cozy wood burning stove for those chilly nights and tons of room for entertaining, there is access from this room to a screened in porch, a great place to hang out during the summer months! The Main floor also has a 4 pce bathroom and 2 more bedrooms as well as main floor laundry. There is a loft area perfect for either storage or a fun play area for the kids! In the basement, you will find two more bedrooms and a nice sized family/games room. There is an irrigation system that does not require a pump because there is enough pressure to run the sprinklers. In the back yard you will find a nice little seating area that is covered with a pergola as well as a large shed and an outbuilding that is livable with 220 amp power. New shingles on home and garage. This acreage is in a great location and is a must see!
